General Rules:

- Arrange to meet Scott a couple days before your class. He will let you know where in the building your class will be and provide you with all the information about the building and its use. You do not need a key to enter this building. You will enter this code into the pad by the entrance 8426 + bell symbol to enter the premises. You can share this code with your students so they can enter the building when they arrive for class. The door locks when closed.
- You are welcome to post signs to direct your students to the class location in the building. Mt. Airy Axis is handicap accessible.
- Please cleanup after yourselves at the end of the class. You are welcome to use the cleaning products at Mt. Airy Axis. Please ensure to leave the room as you found it.
- Turn off all lights when you are done and before you leave the building.
- Arrive early to allow plenty of time to get settled for your class before students arrive!
- Have fun! Enjoy your course!
